LONG BEACH CHURCH OF CHRIST

The Rantings of a Mac Man

Sometimes one of my favorite things to do is to sit and listen to the children especially when they don't know that I am listening. It seems that lately a word that has entered their vocabulary, especially Zane, is the word "forever". When he is told to do something his response has, at times, been "Forever?". Zane has to go into time out... "forever?". Zane it is time to go into your room and clean up..."forever?". He just doesn't have grasp on forever, does he? But, you know, I'm not sure that I have a firm grasp on forever either. I can give a definition or give synonyms but do I really understand forever? I just wonder if any of our finite minds can grasp the concept of the infinite. In our existence everything has an end. No event, no things and nothing available to our senses is eternal. The only eternal things are our God and our souls. Many in our world want to say that matter and energy are eternal but we know better, don't we?

Then I saw "a new heaven and a new earth," for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. Revelation 21:1

There will be no more night. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light. And they will reign forever and ever. Revelation 22:5

I don't know if I can truly understand this eternity but I know I surely want it. I also want to avoid its counterpart, eternal punishment.

I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God so that you may know that you have eternal life. 1 John 5:13

Yes! That is what this is all about. We walk in faith and believe in the name of the Son of God so we can KNOW that we have eternal life. That is something I can understand!
