The Rantings of a Mac Man

Jerry McCorkle

We truly enjoyed watching our son get married. I told Vivian that we finally had a full set; 3 sons and three daughters. But, perhaps more than the wedding on Saturday, was what happened on Sunday. My son and his new bride placed membership at the congregation where I grew up. The preacher, when he introduced them, mentioned that my son was the grandson of long-time elder, Harry McCorkle and that my son had returned to the home of his ancestors. I told Steven and Amanda that their last name meant something there and they better not mess it up. Steven responded with noticing that the preacher mentioned him and my father but had not mentioned me. I'm not sure where he gets that smart-aleck attitude.

I felt so good about my children carrying on with a heritage of faith. Isn't that the greatest thing that we can give our children? A heritage of faith is what we all have even if our parents were not people of faith. Listen to Paul's words in Galatians 3:6-7:

"So also Abraham 'believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.' Understand, then, that those who have faith are children of Abraham."

Just being a person of faith makes us a child of Abraham. Now that's a heritage to pass along. It makes no difference what we were or what we were like before we became a person of faith. The past is behind us and God has forgiven any sin that we committed. Being totally washed clean, we began a new walk and were blessed with a new heritage.

When I was a child we sang a song in VBS. Called "Father Abraham". The verse was "Father Abraham
