05-05-19 - Lesson #1: Where Did Sin Go

The Rantings of a Mac Man by Jerry McCorkle

Going back to the congregation that I grew up in, brought back a lot of memories that I had not thought of in a while. There were some old friends that had helped me and encouraged me when I was a part of that youth group. One memory that has returned was from the time I was in high school. There was a period of two or three months that I studied with and baptized about one other teenager every week. I look back at that time and I really have mixed feelings about it. You might wonder why my feelings are mixed and not totally positive. These studies were actually arranged by parents. Once I had one study and baptized that young person, other parents approached my father or he approached them and arranged a study. The studies were structured studies where you would look up a verse then answer some questions about it. There was a little bit of extra instruction on the verse then we would go to another verse. My real regret is that the study was not designed to teach Jesus or bring a person to faith. The verses were our hand-picked verses that our brotherhood loved and leaned on heavily. The study was designed to prove why the Church of Christ was right and why everyone should be like us. I'm afraid the only conversion done was a conversion to our church not to a loving Savior. The world truly needs a Savior before they need a church. I'm not saying that the church is not important (and I don't know how people survive without a church family) but our priority must be Jesus first and church afterward. I like this quote from God Came Near: "Christianity, in its purest form, is nothing more than seeing Jesus. Christian service, in its purest form, is nothing more than imitating Him who we see. To see His Majesty and to imitate Him, that is the sum of Christianity." My prayer today is that those that sat with me in those studies had some seed planted in them and it grew into a faith in Jesus.
